

CARNIVAL OF ILLUSION ANNOUNCES 2013 PERFORMANCE SCHEDULE

Phoenix, AZ – Step right up and into Carnival of Illusion’s evening of old-world magic. Roland Sarlot and Susan Eyed have announced dates for their 4th season in the Valley at the historic Arizona Biltmore Resort and in Tucson at the Doubletree Reid Park. Performances reopen January 25, 2013 and continue through May 25, 2013. Tickets start at $40 in Phoenix (and $26 in Tucson) and are on sale now.

The season will also include the 250th anniversary performance set for April 20th and will include magic, mystery, humor, international music, and butterflies in this popular, intimate theater show that transports guests on a magical journey “around the world in 80 minutes”.

Lendre Kearns, General Manager of Broadway in Tucson says, “I absolutely love Carnival of Illusion and have seen the show three times. Since the beginning I’ve called them Tucson’s best kept secret. But no more, the secret is out. Last year they sold out all 90 shows!”

National award-winning entertainers, Roland Sarlot and Susan Eyed of the popular Vaudeville-inspired theater show “Carnival of Illusion” have played to non-stop sold-out shows throughout Arizona and the country.

The national recipients for “Excellence in Magic”, Sarlot & Eyed were featured performers during a run of 21 shows at the world famous Magic Castle in Hollywood and have performed as house entertainers at top resorts including Canyon Ranch and Miraval. In Las Vegas, they opened the 2012 annual convention for the prestigious Society of American Magicians, the very organization that Houdini reigned as president from 1917-1926.

For more information on the 2013 season or to buy tickets, please visit carnivalofillusion.com or call (480) 359-SHOW (for Tucson (520) 615-5299).

###