HOLIDAY CONCERT @ THE FOX THEATRE

They're classical. They're pop. And they're a lot sexier than "The Three Tenors." Australia's most debonair musical export, THE TEN TENORS, deliver a dynamic mix of vocal power -- ranging from high-tone opera, to jazz, modern and classic pop -- with a stylized flair that leaves audiences breathless. The "hip and happening" musical sensation that has been melting hearts all over the world returns to Tucson for eight performances only, December 15-20 at the Fox Tucson Theatre!

This marks the third time THE TEN TENORS will be bringing the thunder from down under to the Old Pueblo. With this stop, THE TEN TENORS set list will include select holiday favorites as well as songs from their latest release, "Nostalgica".

Tickets for THE TEN TENORS NOSTALGICA HOLIDAY PROGRAM are on sale now! Order online at www.broadwayintucson.com, by phone M-F, 8am-4pm at 877-840-0457, or in person at the Fox Tucson Theatre Box Office, during regular business hours (Tuesday-Friday, 11am-6pm). Tickets range from $30-$60, and discounts are available for all performances for students, seniors and members of the military.

CARNIVAL OF ILLUSION @ THE DOUBLETREE

Experience an Evening of Intimate Magical Wonders on Dec. 11-12 & 18-19, 2009 with Roland Sarlot and Susan Eyed at the Doubletree Hotel. Carnival of Illusion recreates a magical experience that began in the 1850's, the pinnacle of European magical artistry. From Paris to Vienna to Budapest, the high-society was treated to marvelous magical performances of the highest caliber. These exclusive shows were offered in "parlours", or entertaining rooms of affluent homes, to the select few.

Sarlot and Eyed have performed for Fortune 100 CEOs, the 200 Most Powerful Women in America and as house magicians at Miraval and Canyon Ranch. Hailed by Fox News, the LA Weekly and the Indianapolis Star these national touring illusionists call Tucson, AZ thier home and were the 2009 national recipients for "Excellence in Magic."
