Roland Sarlot, left, and Susan Eyed perform in their Carnival of Illusion — An Evening of Intimate Magical Wonders show at the Doubletree Hotel. The Vaudeville-inspired magic/illusions show is performed for an audience of only 35 people. Go to www.carnivalofillusion.com for more information.

The show's intimate style of performance harkens back to a time when the rich and famous were entertained in the parlors of their homes.

Susan Eyed performs a ring trick during the show. Performances are scheduled through April at the Doubletree Hotel, 445 S. Alvernon Road.
