

SARLOT & EYED present CARNIVAL of ILLUSION

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LOCAL ENTERTAINERS SARLOT AND EYED OPEN THEIR “CARNIVAL OF ILLUSION” TO DELIGHTED AUDIENCES

Award-winning illusionists dive into the first of their record breaking 52 performances in Tucson.

Tucson, Arizona (February 9, 2010) The carnival has arrived! Nationally touring Tucson based illusionist duo Sarlot and Eyed charmed sold out audiences with the first in a series of 52 shows this past weekend.

Roland Sarlot and Susan Eyed, 2009 National Recipients for "Excellence in Magic" and house entertainers at the world's finest resorts, transport their audiences back to a time when magic flourished as an art and was practiced in the salons and “parlours” of the wealthy. Now thrill seekers from all walks of life can enjoy the enchantment of magic. “We brought back the parlour show because we love the intimacy and hearing the guests’ reactions. It’s like balancing on a tightrope with no safety net, electrifying!”

“Carnival of Illusion” is a Victorian-inspired parlour show with a modern, hip edge. This intimate experience is limited to only 35 seats per show and the first two weekends at the Double Tree Reid Park are sold out. Due to the immense popularity, seating for the following four weeks are half filled. “I’ve traveled worldwide and come from New York but have never seen anything to compare,” raved one guest during the first show intermission.

Their Herculean mission began February 5th and will continue with two shows nightly at 6pm and 8:30pm every Friday and Saturday at Double Tree Reid Park, Tucson. As a bonus, before or after the performance, guests can buy one entrée and receive a (equal or lesser priced) second entrée for FREE in either Double Tree restaurant. Tickets are $25 general, $20 seniors (55+) and juniors (ages 8 to 16). Available at www.carnivalOfIllusion.com or (520) 615-5299.
