FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MAGICAL ENTERTAINMENT TEAM "SARLOT & EYED"
PRESENT AT THE RITZ-CARLTON, DOVE MOUNTAIN
FOR THE MTCVB 2010 CELEBRATION

National-touring illusionists and 2009 national-recipients for "Excellence in Magic", Roland Sarlot and Susan Eyed present their large stage illusion show "Dance of Illusion" at The Ritz-Carlton, Dove Mountain for the MTCVB's 2010 Celebration on January 7, 2010.

The evening's theme is "Tucson to the World" with Sarlot and Eyed transporting the guests around the world on a magical adventure. Sarlot & Eyed invite you to travel with them to a cabaret in old Berlin, a royal palace in ancient Tibet, and other exotic locations your imagination will love experiencing.

Sarlot and Eyed have performed for Fortune 500 CEOs, at world-class resorts, as house magicians at Miraval and Canyon Ranch, to the 200 Most Powerful Women in America. Fox News called these Las Vegas headliners, "Outstanding" and the LA Weekly wrote "Amazing." In August 2009, they were honored with the prestigious "Excellence in Magic" award at the Nation's oldest magic conference. Previous recipients were Las Vegas headliners Lance Burton and Harry Blackstone Jr. They perform over 150 shows a year nationwide: from national conferences, performing arts centers, casinos, high-end corporate events and every month at the Tucson Veteran's hospital.

Roland Sarlot and Susan Eyed's newest intimate Victorian-Inspired Parlour Show "Carnival of Illusion" with only 35 seats per show is scheduled for 52 shows at the DoubleTree Tucson at Reid Park starting in February 2010.
